

Notes for Students

Dear Student, you may apply to the Service Center without calling first for the following purposes:

Barrier examination

Appointment (examination, consultation) with a general practitioner/pediatrician
Appointment (examination, consultation) with a gynecologist/urologist
Drawing a blood sample from a peripheral vein
Fluorography
Clinical urine analysis

Barrier examination for foreign students not leaving the Russian Federation

Appointment (examination, consultation) with a general practitioner
Fluorography

Extended barrier examination for non-CIS states at the request of epidemiologist

Microscopic examination of a thick smear for malaria plasmodium
Study of the rest of urine for schistosomes

Examination for admission to physical education activities

Electrocardiography with exercise
Drawing a blood sample for glucose determination
Determination of glucose in blood serum
Appointment (examination, consultation) with a gynecologist/urologist (without smear test)
Appointment with a general practitioner (pediatrician) in order to draw up a conclusion on admission to physical education activities
Fluorography (should not be redone, if done for a barrier examination)

Preventive vaccination

Drawing a blood sample from a vein to determine the titer of antibody tension
Examination by a general practitioner (pediatrician) for admission to vaccination
I. m. (s/c) vaccine administration (nurse, paramedic)

Primary health care in an emergency in the amount necessary for the relief of an emergency.

Initial visit and clinical blood and urine analysis. Follow-up appointment based on test results (recovery) – appointment with a therapist.

To receive medical care you should call at 8-812- 336-4770 (24 hour medical call center).

When talking with operator doctor, you should pronounce your full name, your voluntary medical insurance policy number (Rosgosstrah Card ID) and explain what has happened and where you are.

When you visit clinic, you should have passport (identity document) and voluntary medical insurance policy (Rosgosstrah Card).